

Who we are

- Business advisory services firm with expertise in strategy, processes, organization, systems and controls.
- Challengers and thought provokers for challenging various management assertions – aim management assurance.
- Process experts always thinking in terms of growth, cost benefit analysis, bottom line improvement, efficiency, performance culture & technology.

Why Business Consultancy

- At Proteus, we believe that new perspective and focus brings higher value and improved learning curve.

- Infusing control maturity - With growth, previously used organization structure and Internal Controls systems become outdated and a new approach is required. We help our client differentiate “Good Growth” vs “Bad Growth”

- Making organization Investor ready - Investors look at the business differently compared to the promoters. We, with our extensive experience, help clients in identifying areas for improvement to make the organization more attractive to an outside investor. Buyers/Investors place higher value when processes and controls are robust and matured.

- Performance Culture - We assist MSME Companies execute Organization Restructuring, Streamlining of its Reporting Lines, Responsibility Alignments, Changing and Measuring Key Performance Indicators and designing MIS for improving overall performance of these companies.

- ERP Functional Expertise: We can revive a failing ERP or could help implement a new one while bringing business functionality and best industry practices.

- Our Bouquet of Services for Sleep Well Assurance - Internal Audits, Operations Audit, Efficiency Audit, Process Improvement, Costing and Cost Accounting implementation and Strategy Implementations.

Why Proteus Advisors

- We work on a consulting model which requires our team to be top heavy for providing better results in short time.
- Identifying the problem at the outset sets the mode to result oriented execution than on some vague hypothesis
- Clarity of target and milestone goals are very critical which builds superior management assurance, once achieved
- Knowledge Retention is key to our work.

Our Team

- Mr. Narayan Mantri, CEO, founded Proteus Advisors in 2007 with a view to provide business advisory and management consulting services to MSMEs that have passion to transform the industry and are faster on growth trajectory but have less time to implement various strategies, supporting system and controls.
- We hire and retain talent from diversified fields having varied exposure, which includes CA, CWAs, MBAs and Post Graduate Engineer, who are passionate about Management Consulting.
